

North-VA – Toano, VA
Layout #5

2026 MER Convention – Tracks to Tidewater
Layout Tour Book & Operating Sessions Guide

| Phoebus Railroad – PRR                                                                                                                                                    |          |                                            | Open for Viewing(free)                 |                     | Operating Sessions($10.00 charge)    |                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|--------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------------------------|---------------------|
| Owner: Gary Friedhaber                                                                                                                                                    |          |                                            | Date(s)                                    | Time(s)             | Date(s)                                   | Time(s)             |
| HO                                                                                                                                                                        | 16'x 30' | Trackwork & Electrical100% Scenery 98^ | Thursday                                   | 12:30p.m.–4p.m. | Friday                                    | 7p.m.–10:30p.m. |
| Accessibility: The layout is on the 2 nd floor, and it is not hand cap accessible. Ther are 5 steps to the first floor and 14 steps to the layout room. |          |                                            |                                            |                     |                                           |                     |
|                                                                                                                                                                           |          |                                            | 10 Guestsat a timearoundlayout |                     | 6 Guests ata timearoundlayout |                     |

Description: Phoebus Railroad is a short line connecting the Richmond area to Hampton Roads and serving numerous industries.

Address: 107 Branches Pond Road,
 Toano, VA 23168

Phone 757-634-6896
 Email: No internet